

Conceptions of Research Among Academic Librarians and Archivists

Kristin Hoffmann
University of Western Ontario

Lise Doucette
University of Toronto

Our double-sided poster displayed drawings by our 25 research participants (academic librarians and archivists).

We asked 13 participants:

“Thinking primarily about your understanding of the experience of the researchers you support, create a drawing or diagram of ‘research’.”

We asked 12 participants:

“Thinking primarily of your own experience as a researcher, create a drawing or diagram of ‘research’.”
